The moment you step foot on the grounds you will understand why generations of families have traveled many miles to spend their summer days at this property. The Pharr House is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and was one of the first beach cottages built back in 1934. You will find countless ways to enjoy your time outdoors at the Pharr House; whether it be watching the sunrise, playing on the beach, exploring the large oceanfront yard, or relaxing in a rocker on the porch taking in the scenery.
